

Atolandon 'Mil Historias' Bobal

Certified Organic Farming No Added Sulfur and Vegan

Atolandon is a family run estate in Manchuela in Central Spain. One of the highest vineyards in Spain, they farm organically and make their wines without harmful chemicals including sulfur. Bobal is the second most planted red grape in Spain, and it thrives in the region. This wine has enticing aromas of dark cherry and blueberry along with notes of spice including black pepper. With gentle acidity, bright minerality, and silky tannins this wine is delicious with freshly grilled sausages.

Atolandon 'Mil Historias' Bobal

Certified Organic Farming No Added Sulfur and Vegan

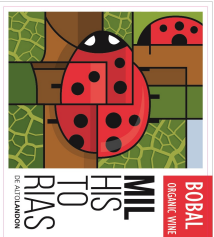

Atolandon is a family run estate in Manchuela in Central Spain. One of the highest vineyards in Spain, they farm organically and make their wines without harmful chemicals including sulfur. Bobal is the second most planted red grape in Spain, and it thrives in the region. This wine has enticing aromas of dark cherry and blueberry along with notes of spice including black pepper. With gentle acidity, bright minerality, and silky tannins this wine is delicious with freshly grilled sausages.

Atolandon 'Mil Historias' Bobal

Certified Organic Farming No Added Sulfur and Vegan

Atolandon is a family run estate in Manchuela in Central Spain. One of the highest vineyards in Spain, they farm organically and make their wines without harmful chemicals including sulfur. Bobal is the second most planted red grape in Spain, and it thrives in the region. This wine has enticing aromas of dark cherry and blueberry along with notes of spice including black pepper. With gentle acidity, bright minerality, and silky tannins this wine is delicious with freshly grilled sausages.

Atolandon 'Mil Historias' Bobal

Certified Organic Farming No Added Sulfur and Vegan

Atolandon is a family run estate in Manchuela in Central Spain. One of the highest vineyards in Spain, they farm organically and make their wines without harmful chemicals including sulfur. Bobal is the second most planted red grape in Spain, and it thrives in the region. This wine has enticing aromas of dark cherry and blueberry along with notes of spice including black pepper. With gentle acidity, bright minerality, and silky tannins this wine is delicious with freshly grilled sausages.

Atolandon 'Mil Historias' Bobal

Certified Organic Farming No Added Sulfur and Vegan

Atolandon is a family run estate in Manchuela in Central Spain. One of the highest vineyards in Spain, they farm organically and make their wines without harmful chemicals including sulfur. Bobal is the second most planted red grape in Spain, and it thrives in the region. This wine has enticing aromas of dark cherry and blueberry along with notes of spice including black pepper. With gentle acidity, bright minerality, and silky tannins this wine is delicious with freshly grilled sausages.

Atolandon 'Mil Historias' Bobal

Certified Organic Farming No Added Sulfur and Vegan

Atolandon is a family run estate in Manchuela in Central Spain. One of the highest vineyards in Spain, they farm organically and make their wines without harmful chemicals including sulfur. Bobal is the second most planted red grape in Spain, and it thrives in the region. This wine has enticing aromas of dark cherry and blueberry along with notes of spice including black pepper. With gentle acidity, bright minerality, and silky tannins this wine is delicious with freshly grilled sausages.